

The Telegraph

Travel Trivia

Date: 10-03-2012 | Edition: Kolkata | Page No: 26 | Clip size (cm) - W: 12 H: 4

Travel trivia

■ Vembanad kayal or Vembanad Lake is the longest lake in India and the largest in Kerala. The lake, at a length of around 90km, is known by different names in different districts. It's called Punnamada Lake in the Kuttanad region of Alleppey, and Kochi Lake around Kochi. The Vembanad wetland system is also the largest in India.

