ABOUT THE FESTIVAL (Legend/History/Myth)

Kochi Metro Short Film Fest is an annual film festival, devoted to short films made in Malayalam language. The short film pool consists of animation films, student films, experimental films as well as documentary films. The festival was conceived in the year 2014 by festival director Raveendran, a popular actor in Malayalam and Tamil language films at Gold Souk Grande Kochi. It gives a platform for budding film makers to showcase their creativity and talent.

DESCRIPTION (How festival is celebrated)

The festival starts with an inaugural ceremony which is followed by screening of short films; those selected for both competition and for the show are screened. The festival also provided opportunities and tips to young film makers. Interviews are organized with working industry professionals while live Q&A sessions are conducted with directors and producers. Seminars, workshops and new film technologies like big screen video wall projection and walk through video projection are highlights of the festival.
