ABOUT THE FESTIVAL (Legend/History/Myth)

Eniyadi Maqam Uroos celebrates the contributions and services of seven Islamic leaders who have been laid to rest at the place. The festival is conducted as a mark of honour to these learned men who had gone beyond caste and religion to bring positive changes and keep the society together. It is also a time to recall Islamic teachings and ensure that it reaches out to the youth.

DESCRIPTION (How festival is celebrated)

Eniyadi Maqam Uroos is celebrated for 7 days. Religious talks are held every day by eminent scholars. The festival attracts a large number of people irrespective of caste and creed and is a mark of secularism with the Subrahmanya Temple, Christuraja Church and St. George Church sending out Uroos wishes. The festival commemorates Islamic saints and leaders who have made priceless contributions to the society through Islamic teachings
