Minister Shri V Sivankutty inaugurates Onam Trade Fair and Exhibition

- Tourism Department's trade fair to feature more than 100 stalls

Thiruvananthapuram, August 31: Minister for General Education and Labour Shri V Sivankutty inaugurated Kerala Tourism Department's Onam Trade Fair and Exhibition here at Suryakanthi Exhibition ground (Kanakakkunnu Palace Complex) on Sunday.

Shri K Ansalan MLA, Tourism Director Smt Sikha Surendran and Tourism Deputy Director Shri Ajeesh Kumar were present at the function.

The trade fair and exhibition will have more than hundred stalls. A wide variety of stalls featuring food items, textiles, jewellery, coir, handicraft items, aquarium, garden plants etc will be part of the Onam trade fair and exhibition.

A stall by Reserve Bank of India to create awareness against online money scams is another highlight of the exhibition.

Other than stalls by departments of central and state governments including Postal department, Suchitwa Mission etc, stalls by organisations in the private and cooperative sector will also be part of the fair.

Amusement park for children and a vibrant garden are other attractions of the fair.

Interested parties can book the stalls for the sale and exhibition of their products. A stall booking office has been opened at Kanakakkunnu.

The trade fair and exhibition will be open for public till September 9.
