Kerala

It isn't God's own country for no reason. Tourists from around the world flock this magnificent destination to bask in the lap of nature that Kerala has an abundance of. It enjoys tropical climate almost all throughout the year. Besides staying in the quintessential houseboats in the backwaters, this state also has plenty of seaside resorts with romantic views. If you'd like to be out and about, head over to one of their many tea and coffee plantations — not only is it a treat to the sense, but you can also sample some quality tea leaves and coffee beans to take your morning cuppa' a notch further!
