KERALA SMILES

Edin Chavez

Kerala Smiles.

Its those eyes that I miss and the smiles that I love. Everyone is so happy in Kerala, not sure whats in the air but its definitely contagious. Everyone looks at you with this great big smile, from ear to ear, you can't help to return it.

I can't wait to go back and be surrounded with honest happiness, the girls are so beautiful, when they smile at you you can't help but to be in a great mood. I can walk around in India for days at a time just taking photos. I fell in love with Kerala.
