Tourism booming in Palakkad

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Palakkad: All the cottages, rooms, and tree-top huts in Nelliampathy Hills, Parambikulam Tiger Reserve and the Silent Valley National Park are fully booked for Christmas and New Year.

Nelliampathy has been witnessing a rush from tourists since reopening in August and an average of 6,000 people visit the destination daily. Parambikulam had reopened on Saturday after remaining closed for nine months due to the pandemic.

Meanwhile, the assistant wildlife warden of Silent Valley, V Ajoy Ghosh has reported New Year bookings for the Bommiyampadi eco-tourism package that clubs Silent Valley and Attapadi tribal area.
