1.. Introduction:

Muziris Heritage Projects is Kerala's first and foremost heritage development initiative, serving as an exemplary model for heritage tourism development efforts across India. Muziris, an ancient port and urban town attained a leading position on the world map around 3000 years ago. The project's initiative involves distinctively preserving the region's tangible and intangible cultural heritage and re-enacting it for the next generation. The project area stretches from North Paravur in the Ernakulam district to Mahilakam in Thrissur district. The construction of the visitor centre building was carried out under the aegis of the Muziris Heritage Project. The completed project building is being converted into a tourist arrival centre.
